

What should have protected the Haitian people?

Join the discussion with
Dr. Tom G. Palmer

Monday, Feb. 22 at 7 p.m.

101 Thomas

Cato Institute Senior Fellow and Atlas VP for International Programs Dr. Tom G. Palmer will show how private enterprise, the free market and not the government can best prepare for natural disasters. Dr. Palmer is the author of the recently published book Realizing Freedom.

Dr. Palmer will also speak at 1 p.m. (lunch included!) in room 232 of the Katz Law Building about his experience in the Second Amendment case District of Columbia vs. Heller, which protected individual rights to own firearms. He was a plaintiff and organizer.

Sponsored by the Penn State Students for Liberty, Austrian Economics Society, College Libertarians & the Federalist Society at the Dickinson School of Law.

