FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ICERS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF DELAWARE PENALTIES; WIN 6-2

University Park, PA – February 5, 2005

The No. 2 Penn State Icers defeated No. 20 Delaware 6-2 Saturday at the Penn State Ice Pavilion in a game riddled by penalties. Mike McMullen and Keith Jordan each scored two goals for the Icers, who swept the weekend series and improved to 20-6-2. Delaware fell to 16-17.

The score was 2-1 after the first period, as the teams played each other fairly even. But the Icers dominated the second period as Delaware was hit with penalty after penalty. The Icers out-shot the Blue Hens 19-4 in the period. At one point, following a Delaware game misconduct, they were called for slashing resulting in a five-on-three situation for Penn State. The Icers promptly pulled goalie Paul Mammola, who recorded his third consecutive win, to make it a six-on-three advantage. Jordan scored his second of the game to make it 4-2 after two periods.

Penn State started the third on the power play after Delaware was called for a bench minor at the 20 minute-mark of the second period. McMullen put his second goal in 23 seconds later to make it 5-2. Greg Windsor added another power play goal for the 6-2 final score.

Penn State will travel to Illinois next weekend for two games.
