FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE #2 ICERS RETURN FROM #4 ILLINOIS WITH A WIN AND A TIE

University Park – February 14, 2005

With the ACHA National Tournament only 3 weeks away the marquee match-up in the ACHA this weekend took place between the #2 Penn State Icers and the #4 ranked Fighting Illini of Illinois at the "Big Pond" in Champaign. The Icers came away with a crucial hard fought 2-1 victory Friday behind the stellar goaltending of Sophomore Paul Mammola (32 saves on 33 shots) and power play goals from senior defenseman Joe Maglaque and senior forward Kevin Jaeger. With that goal Jaeger moves past former line mate Glenn Zuck into sole possession of 2nd place on the career goal scoring list with 125 goals.

On Saturday the two teams went into OT without resolving the outcome as they played to a 3-3 tie. Once again the Icers power play generated 3 goals and went 5 for 6 on the weekend while the Icers penalty killers held Illinois to just 1 for 7. Icer goals were scored by freshman Mike McMullen, State College native Keith Jordan and senior Mike Carrano. The Icers held a 3-2 lead before the Illini tied the game on their lone power play goal of the weekend by Brian Coleman with just over 8 minutes remaining in the game. Paul Mammola made 22 saves as the Icers improved to 21-6-3 while the Illini fall to 20-5-3. With the win and the tie on the road the Icers make a strong case to keep the #2 seed for the ACHA National tournament March 3-6 in Chicago.

Next up for the Icers is familiar foe Washington and Jefferson this Friday at 9:00pm and Saturday at 3:30pm. Saturday is Senior Day and 7 Icer Seniors will be recognized prior to the 3:30pm face-off. Co-Captains Eric Harbaugh and Kevin Jaeger, forwards Greg Windsor, Garrett Divins and Mike Carrano and defensemen Chris Rome and Joe Maglaque will play their final home games at the Ice Pavilion.
