FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
ICERS WELCOME WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON FOR FINAL WEEKEND OF REGULAR SEASON, RECOGNIZE SENIORS

University Park, PA – February 17, 2005

The No. 2 Penn State Icers (21-6-3) will wrap up the regular season this weekend as No. 14 Washington & Jefferson (15-11-1) comes to town. Friday's 9 p.m. game and Saturday's 3:30 p.m. game can each be heard on www.fightonstate.com.

Penn State is coming off of a 2-1 win and a 3-3 tie last weekend at No. 4 Illinois. They were announced Wednesday as the No. 2 seed in the upcoming ACHA National Tournament, which takes place March 3-6 at Robert Morris College in Illinois. They will face the fifteenth seed, West Chester, in the first round.

Last weekend, Washington & Jefferson dropped two games to No. 1 Rhode Island including a tough 4-3 loss on Saturday before getting a 7-2 exhibition win over unranked Wesleyan University. They will enter the tournament as the No. 13 seed.

Friday's game will feature a keychain giveaway and Saturday's game is fan appreciation day and Senior Recognition day.

Jaeger watch.....

Kevin Jaeger's one goal and three assists last weekend give him 125 goals and 255 points for his career. He currently stands alone in second place on the Icers all-time goals list, four behind leader Lynn Sipe. He is five points back of fifth place on the all-time points list.
