FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ICERS ROUT WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON 11-0

University Park, PA – February 18, 2005

Behind hat tricks from Mike Carrano and Kevin Jaeger and a shutout from Chris Matteo, the No. 2 Penn State Icers cruised to an 11-0 victory over visiting Washington and Jefferson Friday night. The Icers improve to 22-6-3 while the Presidents fall to 15-12-1.

The Icers jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first period and never looked back. The freshman line of Jesse Weinzimmer, Paul Zodtner and Mike McMullen combined for two goals in under a minute, with Weinzimmer getting the first from Zodtner and McMullen, and McMullen getting the second from Weinzimmer and Zodtner. The other four goals of the period came from seniors, with Eric Harbaugh and Carrano each scoring one, and Jaeger netting two.

In the second period, Carrano added two more to complete his hat trick, and Jaeger put in his third as well. The Icers led at the second intermission by score of 9-0.

Dan McKeen and Keith Jordan added goals in the third to make it a 11-0 final.

Jaeger had three goals and two assists on the night. Those five points tie him for fifth on the Icers' all-time points scoring list with 260. He also now has 128 career goals, which is just one behind all-time leader Lynn Sipe.

The two teams will meet again tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. for the Icers' last game of the regular season. The seniors will be recognized and it is also fan appreciation day.
