FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ICERS ANNOUNCE TEAM AWARDS

University Park, PA – April 11, 2005

The Penn State Icers hockey team recently held its annual end-of-the-year banquet, and has announced numerous awards winners. Freshman Keith Jordan led the way with three awards, while seniors Eric Harbaugh and Mike Carrano each collected two. Senior Kevin Jaeger, who led the team in scoring and broke the all-time Icers career goal scoring record in the process, was named the team's most valuable player. The awards are as follows:

MVP – Kevin Jaeger
Offensive Player of the Year – Mike Carrano/Mike McMullen
Defensive Player of the Year – Keith Jordan/Joe Maglaque
Rookie of the Year – Keith Jordan/Paul Mammola
Unsung Hero – Luke Walker/Eric Harbaugh
Player's Player – Brett Wilson
Best Academic Performance – Keith Jordan
Most Improved Academic Performance – Mike Carrano/Eric Harbaugh
Best Academic Performance by a New Player – Clint Highley

In addition to the team awards, head coach Joe Battista also announced the team's nominees for several ACHA awards:

All-America – Mike Carrano, Kevin Jaeger, Keith Jordan, Joe Maglaque, Paul Mammola, Mike McMullen
Academic All-America – Brendan Martin, Greg Windsor
Player of the Year – Kevin Jaeger

Also, Dave Arcobello, Mike McMullen and Matt Wallace garnered honorable mentions at the ACHA national tournament last month, where the Icers fell to Illinois in the championship game.
