Icers Open Season with Big Victory Over Scranton

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.—The No. 1 Penn State Icers (1-0-0, 1-0-0 ACHA) opened their 2007-2008 season Friday night with a 9-0 victory over the University of Scranton (0-1-0, 0-1-0 ACHA).

Last season, the Icers opened their home slate with the Ice Royals, and came away with a 4-2 victory that was close until the very end. Friday night, the Icers left no doubt about it, scoring early and often, and adding five goals in the second period.

Penn State opened the scoring at 7:20 of the first period, when Steve Peck fired a one-timer by Scranton goaltender Justin Lucas. Three minutes later, Matt Schwartz scored his first of two goals, and the first point of what was a 4-point night for the senior forward.

Lukas DeLorenzo, the team's two-time defending scoring champion, also scored twice and added an assist. DeLorenzo tallied all three points in a second period flurry that lasted just under ten minutes.

Also scoring for the Icers was Andrew Magulick, Keith Jordan, Brian Sobonya, and Brandon Rubeo.

The Ice Royals had very few chances to provide any offense of their own. Nick Signet and Edward Hume combined for the shutout, while the Icers' defensive corps allowed only 18 shots on the duo.

The two teams face off again on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Admission is $7.50 for adults and $5.00 for students with Penn State ID.
