FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE THREE ICERS NAMED TO WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES ROSTER

University Park, PA - October 10, 2004

The 2005 World University Games hockey roster has been announced, and it includes three current Penn State Icers. Senior Defensemen Eric Harbaugh and Joe Maglaque and Forward Kevin Jaeger will play for the United States Select Team at the 2005 Games, which will take place in Innsbruck, Austria from January 12-22.

Penn State is no stranger to the World University Games. Icers head coach Joe Battista coached the United States team at the 2003 Games in Tarvisio, Italy, and Penn State has previously sent eight other players to the World University Games in various years.

Harbaugh, Maglaque and Jaeger were selected from a pool of 71 players, all of whom participated in the 2004 Winter World University Games Summer Select Camp back in August at the National Hockey Center in St. Cloud, Minnesota.

Harbaugh, a senior defenseman from Meadville, PA, had one goal and four assists for five points last season before red-shirting. For his career, he has 7 goals and 34 assists for 41 points.

Maglaque is a senior defenseman from South Plainfield, NJ. Last season was his first with the Icers and he tallied 14 goals and 34 assists for a total of 48 points. He was named to the All-America second team for the regular season and the ACHA National Tournament first team.

Jaeger is a senior forward from Muskegon, MI with career totals of 105 goals and 102 assists for 207 points. Last season, he was second in the ACHA in scoring with 85 points, and first in goals with 38. He was named to the All-America first team as well as the ACHA National Tournament first team.

ACHA National Champions	1984, 1990, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003
National Runner-Up	1983, 1985, 1993, 1995, 1999, 2004
