FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ICERS TRAVEL TO CANADA FOR TWO GAMES THIS WEEKEND

University Park, PA – October 13, 2004

The ACHA's No. 2 ranked Penn State Icers (3-0) will travel to Windsor, Ontario, Canada this weekend for two games with St. Clair College. The game on Friday, October 15 will begin at 7:00 p.m., while the Saturday, October 16 game is set for 2:00 p.m. The games will be web cast at www.PSUPlaybook.org.

St. Clair (3-1), has captured the Ontario College Championship three of the last four years, and is coming off an impressive road sweep of No. 8 Michigan-Dearborn this past weekend.

The Icers and St. Clair last met in 2003 for two games at Penn State. They split the series, with the Penn State winning 5-4 and St. Clair winning 3-2.

Last weekend, the Icers picked up two wins over West Chester and one over Towson, outscoring the opposition by a combined 21-7. They have converted 50 percent of their power play opportunities into goals, while killing 92.9 percent of their opponents' chances.

Joe Maglaque leads the team in scoring with eight points on three goals and five assists. Kevin Jaeger has seven points on three goals and four assists. Brett Wilson has three goals, while Jesse Weinzimmer and Greg Schwind each have two.

Goaltenders Paul Mammola and Chris Matteo have combined for 55 saves on 62 shots, good for an 88.7 save percentage and a 2.33 goals allowed average.
