Icers Ride Winning Streak into Weekend

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 3 ranked Penn State Icers (9-2-0, 9-1-0, ACHA) will ride a six-game winning streak into this weekend when they play three games in three days.

After hosting No. 19 West Chester this Friday at 9 p.m. at the Greenberg Ice Pavilion, the Icers will take to the road to face Duquesne on Saturday at 8 p.m. then No. 14 West Virginia on Sunday at 4 p.m. Saturday's game at Duquesne is scheduled for the Ice Castle in Pittsburgh.

No. 19 West Chester (6-5-0) heads into Friday's match-up winning their last three games. West Chester started the season at No. 15, but has been holding steady within the top 20. The Golden Rams are led by Rob Troxell with a team-high 16 points and coached by Mark Gonsalves.

Duquesne (1-10-1) started out the season ranked ninth in the ACHA, but quickly fell out of the rankings after a disappointing start to the season. The Dukes have not won in their previous eight games. They are led by Mike Heath who is second in the ACHA in goals and sixth in points. The Dukes are coached by Mike Sargo.

No. 14 West Virginia (9-7-0) has dropped four straight games including a loss to the Icers last Friday night. The Mountaineers are coached by Adam Blaine, 2005-2006 ECHA Coach of the Year, who led the team to their first winning season seven years last year.

Admission to Icers' games is $7.50 for adults and $5 for students with IDs.
