Rematch of National Championship Game

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.—The No. 3 ranked Penn State Icers (12-2, 12-1 ACHA) will square off against No. 2 ranked Rhode Island (13-2, 13-1 ACHA) this weekend in a rematch of last year's National Championship Game. The Icers play two games, Friday and Sunday, at Boss Arena with game time set for 7:30 p.m. in each.

The Icers enter the contest on a torrid pace winning their previous nine games. During these nine games, the Icers have allowed only five goals including five shutouts. Offensively, the Icers have shared the wealth with 13 of their players registering atleast two goals.

The Rhode Island Rams have won six out of their last seven games including a pair of wins over Navy this past weekend. The Rams are led by senior forward Mike Curran who has the team high in goals (12) and points (26) and are coached by Joe Augustine who is in his 18th season at the university.

The Rams defeated the Icers in the championship game last year 3-1 in large part because of the play of goalie Anthony Feyock who was named the tournament's most valuable player. This year the senior goaltender is allowing 0.92 goals per game, which is tops among goaltenders in the ACHA who have logged at least 350 minutes.
