Icers Look to Extend Streak against Canadian Opponent

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.—The No. 3 Penn State Icers look to extend their 13-game winning streak this Friday and Saturday against the Windsor St. Clair Saints in an out-of-league match up. Game times are set for 9 p.m. and 3:30 p.m., respectively.

The Icers (16-2-0, 16-1-0 ACHA) handed a pair of losses over the weekend to No. 11 Delaware and have not lost a game since Oct. 20.

During the streak, the Icers have allowed only 14 goals in 13 games. This is a testament, not only sophomore goaltender Nick Signet who is averaging 1.77 goals allowed per game, but to Penn State's outstanding speed on defense. This speed has led to several scoring opportunities.

Junior forward Nate Obringer took over the team lead in goals (13) with his latest hat-trick performance against the Fightin' Blue Hens this past weekend and hopes to stay hot for the Icers' final few home games before Christmas break.

The Saints (11-2-0), out of Windsor, Ontario, began their first season as a member of the Ontario Hockey Association's AAA Hockey League this year under the direction of head coach Kevin Hamlin. Saints forward Jim Lebaron leads the team in goals (nine) and points (21).

Admission to Icers' games is $7.50 for adults and $5 for students with IDs.
