Icers' Streak Snapped by St. Clair

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.— The Penn State Icers' 13-game winning streak came to an abrupt halt Friday night when the Windsor St. Clair Saints handed them a 4-0 loss at the Ice Pavilion.

In an out-of-league game, the No. 3 Icers (16-3-0, 16-1-0 ACHA) fell behind early to their Canadian opponent when Saints forward Brandon Boyko netted two goals in the first period.

The Saints kept the scoring going in the second when Kyle Lang knocked in a shot 41 seconds into the period. The Saints tacked on another in the third when Jesse Ouimet got a shot past Icers' senior goaltender Chris Matteo who returned to the starting lineup from injury.

Despite the final score, the game was evenly matched for most of the contest. The Icers outshot the Saints 33-28, but saw a handful of their shots ricochet off the posts.

Coming into the game, the Icers had not lost since Oct. 20.

The Saints, out of Windsor, Ontario, are a member of the Ontario Hockey Association's AAA Hockey League and are considered ineligible to play in ACHA.

The Icers face the Saints again today at 3:30 p.m. at the Ice Pavilion. Admission to Icers' games is $7.50 for adults and $5 for students with IDs.
