Icers Salvage Split

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.— Jamie Zimmel scored two goals to help the Penn State Icers salvage a split against the Windsor St. Clair Saints Saturday afternoon at the Ice Pavilion with a 5-3 victory.

Sean Kenney got the scoring going for the No. 3 Icers (17-3-0, 16-1-0 ACHA) on the power play when he deposited a pass from Matt Schwartz at 6:19 into the first period to give the Icers their first goal in the two-game series.

The Saints quickly evened up the scoring 19 seconds later when Erik Stone slipped a shot past sophomore goaltender Nick Signet. The Icers then added another goal in the first off the stick of Zimmel only to see the Saints respond once again with a goal of their own to even the scoring at 2-2.

The Icers regained the lead early in the second period with a one-timer by captain Keith Jordan. Although the Saints again responded with a goal, assistant captain Michael McMullen netted a goal on a breakaway pass courtesy of Lukas DeLorenzo to take a 4-3 lead before the start of the third.

Zimmel picked up his second goal of the game halfway through the third to round out the scoring in the out-of-league game.

Penn State registered 25 shots on goal while their Canadian counterpart recorded 40.

The Icers will host Niagara this Friday at 9 p.m. before they return to the ice Jan. 10 at West Chester.
