Say It!

Everyday that I wake up, Satan gets exposed at least once that day. It brings joy to my heart to know that I am growing in God, and putting shame to the enemy in the process.

The sad thing is, that the enemy has a lot of tricks up his sleeves, and it seems as if he never runs out.

One of his biggest tricks is operating off the things that we say, speak, or is spoken to us. Words are powerful. The old saying, "sticks and stones may break my bones, but names won't never hurt me..." that's made up. Words ARE powerful and it's important for us to realize that. They are powerful because the en-

Not About the Turkey

Psalm 69:30—I will praise God's name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving. 31—This will please the Lord more than an ox, more than a bull with its horns and hoofs. (NIV)

Thanksgiving is not just a holiday in November. Thanksgiving is a life giving process of surveying the wonders of God's beautiful love.

emy uses words as one of his most perfected tactics.

Practice: Say what you don't have, as if you had it.

Say what you want, and not what you don't have.

Say It!

Speak positive when everything and everybody are negative.

Say your strong when you know you are weak.

Say you are victorious when you fail at tests.

Speak a blessing over someone when they talk about you.

Speak blessing over someone when you are with a crowd of gossipers.

Speak healing when you are sick.

Speak your deliverance when you feel trapped.

Speak confidence when you are intimidated.

Speak peace when you are in a storm.

Speak Direction when you are lost.

I guaranteed that things in your life will start changing. God has been trying to tell us this for quite some time in his Word in Genesis. Things didn't start to happenings, changing, or appearing on this earth until He spoke it. He knew that nothing moves until the unction of your voice makes it.

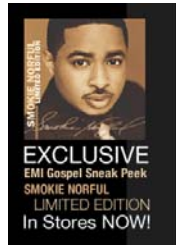

Speak Those Things!

where there is no earthly hope of ever seeing God. Thanksgiving is a process of counting marvelous blessings when our heart aches from the traumas and tragedies of life.

Testimony

Silent Praise, thank you for the timely message on Weekly Devotional 7. I continued to bury the very thing that everyone says I'm good at— thinking that there are so many others that are better...who will notice mine. I forget often that it is only what we do for God that will last.

I have busied myself for years doing many other things and only using that God-given talent on demand, when my services are requested. I fool myself into believing that I am doing what God would have me do, because my busy work is in the church.

I am going to make another effort in using, voluntarily without request, the gift that God has given me and pray and meditate that it is to His glory that my talent be directed.

God bless you and thank you for that timely word.

-Muscava,
Richmond, VA

Don't Be Scured

If you are being blessed by God this month, please share your testimony with Silent Praise. We want to hear the many blessing that are out there! We know that God is doing a wonderful work in your lives and we want to celebrate with you!

Testimonies are a witnessing tool to the Kingdom and many are delivered through your testimony.

Whether you believe it is a good one or not, someone needs to hear it.

Share a Word

So this month when your at the table giving your thanks on Thanksgiving Day, add a testimony in there as well.

You know He has been too good to keep it to ourselves.
